Berlin is a hip, trendsetting world metropolis; a city characterized by tradition, innovation, history and progress. The marriage of the old with the new is what makes Berlin so exciting.

Berlin stands for cutting edge architecture, the Wall, nightlife, cultural events, cinema, history, fashion, international cuisine, music, good beer with sausages, archeology, the opera, the Spree, contemporary art and many more.

The city is also full of surprises as only few are aware that Berlin, with more than 420,000 trees, is the greenest capital in Europe and has more bridges than Venice.

Visiting Berlin is always an exceptional experience. With more than 1500 cultural events taking place every day and its ever-changing landscape, you will be amazed anew every time you come to visit Berlin!

EXCEPTIONAL EXPERIENCES IN BERLIN WITH CAMONSITE

Meet the artist It was the desire of this German-Iraqi artist to create an international memorial of freedom as he painted parts of the famous East Side Gallery. His association is committed to the permanent preservation and protection of the East Side Gallery. With us, you can get an exclusive meet & greet and tour at this famous landmark.

Berlin through the eyes of a Berliner Having witnessed the changes in the city, his passion for all things Berlin, the ability to bring context and texture to the cities story has made him one of the cities most sought after person for lectures about the history of this city. His presentation “Berlin through the eyes of a Berliner” shows the diversity of the city and the many different people who lived here and have experienced different periods.

Vibrant culinary scene Berlin is a melting pot of cultures and ethnicities and the food culture is just as diverse. All the more important for your guests to experience a journey through Berlin’s past and present and to enjoy some delicate food along the way.

EXPERIENCE HAMBURG

Hamburg is gaining as one of the new destinations to host international events. Follow us to hidden places for a special coffee tasting as coffee, coming from all parts of the world, was always one of the most important import products through the Hamburg harbor to Germany.

Based on the international businesses historically handled through the harbor, Hamburg was always a rich city with wonderful shopping areas – wide and elegant boulevards with sophisticated boutiques yet also smaller individual shops can be found in the diverse city districts.

Explore with us the historical Speicherstadt (old warehouse district), the quaint area of Blankenese and discover the world famous opera house Elbphilharmonie as just one of the outstanding architectural highlights. Go up the observation deck and enjoy 360° views of the city and the new harbor district “HafenCity”, one of Europe’s largest urban development projects.

EXCEPTIONAL EXPERIENCES IN HAMBURG WITH CAMONSITE

Hidden places See the city from another point of view. The district of Blankenese, a former fishing village, is now one of Hamburg's most privileged quarters with mansions and villas surrounded by enchanted gardens and full of history.

Fish Market Every Sunday morning the Hamburg fish market attracts thousands of visitors from Hamburg and around the world. If you want to be there, you have to get up early - but it's worth it: with its long tradition, maritime charm and quick-witted pitchmen's, the Hamburg fish market in Altona makes weekly shopping an experience for young and old alike.

Elbphilharmonie Opened in 2017, the Elbphilharmonie is without doubt the new highlight in Hamburg. Learn more about the story of its construction and the impressive new district it's located in – HafenCity.

DRESDEN – THE PEARL AT THE ELBE

Dresden – also known as the Elb Florence of the North – is a light-spirited city full of cultural highlights. Its historic center is quite compact and walkable and it is located just about 100 miles from Berlin – and with the new Berlin-Brandenburg airport opening in October 2020, Dresden becomes even closer and can be easily combined with Berlin.

Within one day you can discover the Dresden Zwinger in the city center with a world famous art collection, the Frauenkirche Church, the Semper Opera House and the Royal Palace as well as wide promenades on the bank of the Elbe river and lots of other charming details.

A longer stay offers the possibility to arrange great wine tastings in the surrounding landscape. Also the little town Meißen with its world famous porcelain manufacture is well worth a private visit.

Meet the royal – Brühl's Terrace

Also named as “Europe’s Balcony”, Brühl’s Terrace is a 500 meter long monument in Dresdens old town. Its name goes back to duke Heinrich von Brühl. We know members of the Brühl family and can organize an exclusive meet and greet for you.

Diamond robbery Follow us on the traces of one of the biggest robberies in modern history in November 2019. The world famous museum houses the largest treasure collection in in Europe and features a variety of exhibits in styles from Baroque to Classicism. Some also claim it is the oldest museum in the world – older than the British Museum and the Vatican Museum.

Christmas Market Every year, more than 240 merchants and showmen travel to the oldest documented Christmas market in Germany to sell their goods and live up to the reputation of the Dresden Striezelmarkt as a showcase for traditional folk art.
